3. Coverage and Services

- (a) While we will do our best to provide quality services, because of the nature of telecommunications, it is impossible to guarantee a fault-free Service, as the quality and coverage of the Services depends partly on our network, and partly on other Telecommunications Service Providers to which our Services are connected.
- (b) You agree
- To keep any password, PIN number or security code that relates to the Services confidential, and to change any of the same if we request that you do so;
 - To notify us immediately if you believe that someone else has discovered your password, PIN number or security code, or has made fraudulent use of the Services

- (d) The Services have free, mandatory virus and spam filtering activated on them, which prevent our mail servers from forwarding contaminated or spam-generated emails to the recipient. However, we cannot guarantee that the Services will prevent every virus or spam item being forwarded, and it will not filter out any virus or spam that do not pass through our mail servers. As such, we recommend that you install current anti-virus software and run regular scans of your computer.
- (e) You agree that you will not use the Services:
- in a way which breaks any law or infringes anyone's legal rights;
 - to obtain unauthorised access to anyone's computer or communications equipment;
 - to annoy anyone or to interfere with anyone else's use of our Services.

- 4. Charges and Billing
- (a) We will send you a Bill for your Charges on a regular basis, starting from on or about when you enter into an agreement with us for the provision of the Services. You must pay the total amount on this Bill by the date specified on the Bill. You will pay the Charges no matter who incurs them or how they are incurred. We may charge for some Services in arrears depending on when charges come through from other Network Operators and providers.
